

Destination Data for the 2024 Leavers

In 2024, 99% of Springfield's Leavers progressed to employment, education or training.

97.4% were enrolled in a "participating destination" (a college course or approved job with training, such as an apprenticeship or cadetship). The local authority average is 91.5%

100% of students classified as disadvantaged progressed to a participating destination. The local authority average is 98%.

98.5% of Springfield students with special educational needs progressed to a participating destination. The local authority average is 85.8%

Our most popular destination was City of Portsmouth College (43% of students), followed by Havant and South Downs College (35% of students). Other students went on to colleges such as Peter Symonds, Barton Peveril, Chichester and Fareham, to Oaklands Sixth Form, or to apprenticeships.